Dear Parents,

Re: DGJS P6 Placement Test Preparation – English and Chinese

In January 2017, your daughter will sit a Placement Test to decide which set she will be placed in when she enters secondary school. We are aware that this is an important opportunity that will affect your child's education.

At i-Learner, we have arranged specific Placement Test preparation classes to help your daughter on the path to exam success. Courses can be taken for both English and Chinese, and will cover all the skills required for each section of their tests. This way, your daughter will be best equipped with all the techniques and skills to excel in her exam.

Students who have taken this course in the past have gone on to enter into top sets in secondary school. Available times for both English and Chinese are as follow:

Tuesday

16:00

17:20
