

2015 Christmas Short Course Timetable 2015 年聖誕短期課程時間表

The Christmas period is a fantastic time for students to spend time looking at skills they may not get to practise as often during their hectic school terms.

i-Learner's Christmas Short Courses are writing- and speaking-focused, spanning over four days, ending in a student presentation. With our experienced teachers, students will enjoy exploring various topics through speaking and debate, and will learn how to translate this into effective writing.

We are sure students will have a great time in our morning Short Course sessions!
