Love to Read

Course Reading List

Dear Parents,

As Austen Term is coming soon (start date: Sun 3rd March), we at i-Learner have prepared a book list for the term. These course books have been carefully selected to form the basis of the course Love to Read. We would like to ask parents to prepare the relevant books for their child before the start of the term. Parents are also encouraged to borrow books with the same theme and students can bring them to class.

Many books are available at our centre, where they can be reserved and bought. They can also be found at major bookstores and public libraries.
