

Love to Read: Course Reading List

24th October 2019

Dear Parents,

As Burns Term is approaching, i-Learner has prepared a reading list for the term. These books have been carefully selected to form the basis of the course Love to Read. We would like to ask parents to purchase the relevant books for their child before the start of the term. Parents are also encouraged to borrow books with the same theme and students can bring them to class.

Many books are available at our centre, where they can be reserved and purchased using the order form below. They can also be found at major bookstores or public libraries.
