Instructor:

DR LILIANA WORTH

Liliana undertook her academic training at the University of Oxford where she took a first-class BA in Classics and French, an MSt in Medieval Studies with distinction, and a DPhil in English Literature. Alongside her research, Liliana sat on her College's admission panel for three years where she interviewed prospective Oxford candidates. Her strong commitment to academic excellence means she is motivated to push her students to perform at their best while developing a real love of learning. Her experience also means she knows exactly where students need to improve if they want to reach top grades and enjoys supporting motivated students to achieve their goals.

Outside the classroom, Liliana enjoys research, translation and adding to her linguistic knowledge. Fluent in six languages, her translations of Mandarin and French texts have been published in China, the UK and US. She is currently learning Russian and Hebrew.
